SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE
File No. S. B. REGISTRY.
No. D 5792
Date July 7, 1935

Subject New owner of the "Astrid" Pharmacy.

Made by D.S. Tcheremshansky

Forwarded by R. B. Leverett, D.D.

Information has been received that Y. G. Hramchenko (File I.O.5792), owner of the "Astrid" Pharmacy, No. 338, Rue Cardinal Mercier, which was financed by the "Dalbank," severed his connections with that enterprise and that the pharmacy at present is owned by his former partners O. L. Dobrishman and A. Gulnik.

Particulars of the latter two individuals are as follows:

- 1) Osin Leonovitch Dobrishman is a Soviet citizen who was born on 12.11.1894 at Odessa, South Russia, and is a druggist by profession. He holds Soviet passport No. 19169 issued on 30.6.26 at Harbin. Dobrishman arrived in Shanghai from Harbin on 22.11.34 in the s.s. "Teingtao Maru." He resides with his wife Mrs. M.K. Dobrishman, 37, at House 1, No. 698, Rue Bourgeat, owned by I. Kotovitch, brother of Leo Kotovitch (File D. 5151).
- 2) Alexander Gulnik is a Russian Jew who, it is reported, recently renounced his Soviet citizenship and obtained an emigrants' passport. His wife is still a Soviet citizen.

Both O. L. Dobrishman and A. Gulnik are reported to be on friendly terms with various Soviet agents.

The "Astrid" Pharmacy is patronized by local Soviet citizens and, it is said, is used as a meeting place by Soviet informers and sympathizers.
